“ Wendy (Raul), Linda and the rest of the Kidd Family; Our deepest condolences to all of you..
I've been missing my old friend Jack for sometime and wished I had went up and seen him in B'dale.. I'm sure others feel the same.

It was an honor to know Jack, and have the discussions about Legion, M.Service or other business , whether arguing or not, we never went away mad.

Also enjoyable were the discussions about the price of pumpkins or sweet corn with him and John down at Ridgeway... Especially talking about potatoes.. !!

Jackson Kidd served his Community and his Nation and shall be missed by many.

Once again our sympathy..

“ So many great life experiences I heard about from Jack, while visiting him at Meadow Woods, all his travels, his great story about meeting and marrying the love of his life, oh how he missed her!! I saw tears from a man that was really deep down passionate and emotional, he had a heart!! Yet he was stern, he was a man that had order in his life, you had to respect that. I am so lucky, to have been allowed to get a glimpse of the life of Jackson Kidd, meet his beautiful daughters, and feel welcome to come back and chat, he put his newspaper down for ME!! That I knew was special and, offer me a peppermint!! Life was great!! I will miss you Jack, you were special to me!! Hugs and prayers of peace and comfort for your dear family. RIP my friend!

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Jack, when I first met him, sort of frightened me, and then he smiled! He just pretended to be gruff. I remember his patience during birthday parties and the bantering between him and your mom very fondly. My heart is heavy for you but now he and your mom are together again and I pray your many memories bring you joy! May God comfort you during your grief.

“ To the Kidd family, I am truly sorry for your loss. The comfort comes in understanding that death is inevitable, and that it is all part of God’s plan. And yet, God assures us that we am not in this alone, that we are all just a small yet significant part of a larger plan, evolving, changing, and growing in keeping with the rhythm of His magnificent scheme. Yes you have passed from this earthly life Mr. Kidd, and we are left with the promise that what we lose in this life is redeemed to us in another form called eternity. We can only imagine the reunion that will take place someday Heaven. Safe journey my friends,

It's certainly going to be weird walking by his room and him not being there 😞 even as stubborn and hard headed as he could be, he would always thank us on the way out, also to see how much joy and smiles little Jackson brought him was beautiful, gonna miss my little bird feeder fill breaks. Wendy & Linda don't forget to stop by every now and again we will miss you guys also as you've become part of our family too!
