

James V. Cusack Sr.

June 1, 1935 - February 25, 2016

James V. Cusack, Sr., age 80, of Gobles, passed away Thursday, February 25, 2016 at Bronson Hospital. Jim was born June 1, 1935 in Chicago, the son of Thomas and Mary Cusack. He had lived in the area over the past 20 years but had been a summer resident of Mill Lake his entire life. Jim had been an active long time member of St. Jude Catholic Church. He was also a long time member of St. Thomas More Parish of Chicago. Jim had served his country as a member of the US Army where he was stationed in Alaska. He retired after 37 years of service from First National Bank of Chicago. Jim was a truly community minded person and volunteered for several different charities in the Gobles area. Surviving are his 4 children, Mary Beth (Shawn) Bentley of Oak lawn IL, John T. (Alice) Cusack of Evergreen Park, IL, James V. (Deborah) Cusack of Westmont, IL, Eileen L. (Michael) Cusack - Marvel of Highland, IN; 4 grandchildren, R.J. Ray, Christopher J. Cusack, Rebecca L. Cusack, Emily G. Marvel; numerous nieces, nephews, grand nieces and grand nephews. He was preceded in death by his wife Marilyn who passed in 2014, siblings, Lorraine Graff, Tom Cusack, Bernard Cusack, Bob Cusack. The family will meet friends on Friday at the GOBLES CHAPEL, D. L. Miller Funeral Home, from 2 - 4 PM and 6 - 8 PM where a scripture service will take place at 7:30 PM. Mass of Christian Burial will take place on Saturday, 11:15 AM at St. Jude Parish, Fr. Joseph Xavier, Celebrant. In lieu of flowers the family suggests memorial contributions be made to St. Jude Memorial Fund.
