“ I am going to my Great Uncle Jim! Thanks for giving James, Jami, and I a place to visit when we were at Webber and for always taking care of us. Here is one of the many things I will miss about my Uncle Jim:

Uncle Jim: Do you want a beer?

Me: No, I am good!

Uncle Jim: I didn't ask you if you were good, I asked if you wanted a beer!

OR the best voicemail I probably ever received was him asking me if I was sleeping on my shirttail?

I will continue to make your famous apple pie drink every holiday in your honor!

RIP, you will be deeply missed and I love you! Jessi Delgado

“My Uncle Jim was special. When his brother (my dad) died, Jim became a Grandpa to my girls that were attending college at WIU, just 10 miles from where he lived in Florida. He fed them, attended their soccer games, and slipped them an extra $5 when needed. Like Alice Hicks stated, he was always there to help. That "Hosier" sense of humor and that great laugh will definitely be missed by me as well as my family. Love you Uncle Jim. Nancy Hosier Hagy
