“ As a younger, first-cousin, reared with Jim (we called him Monroe) on Caney Ridge in Dickenson County, Virginia, I spent many happy times with him, especially at the old Kennedy Grade School on Caney Ridge. Even as a boy, he was a true "mountain man," always preferring hunting and fishing to any other activity. As one of 8 boys, with no sisters, he always seemed fascinated by his female cousins and was extremely protective of us. Once, he even punched a rude boy in the nose for trying to bully me on the playground! After that, I was never bothered again and I always felt very safe when my Cousin James Monroe was around. I am so sorry to learn of his passing and I send my deepest sympathy to Dorothy and the entire family--Ginger (Rose) Senter, daughter of his Uncle Maston "Buck" Rose who was Samuel Patton "Pat" Rose's brother.
