“ Jim was working as a TV director for WKZO when I returned from my duty in the Marines. Prior to my service I worked for WKZO as a landscaper to get myself in shape for boot camp. Since we were promised our old jobs back I visited the studio to catch up with some former coworkers and lo and behold, Jim shows up. I had no idea he was working there. He eventually says, Want a job? They're looking for another director. So long story short, I was hired. Jim showed me the ropes and I was off on this new career that eventually ended up with me moving to the Palm Springs area with a new director's job. That was 1969 and I've been here ever since.

The last time I saw him was at my Mother's funeral. A loyal friend. I'm sure he is missed.

“ Marva and family, my heart goes out to you.. You will be in my thoughts and prayers. Jim was a great cousin, and same age as my brother Mike. I only saw him at family reunions for a long time, but it was always a treat to see and talk with him, and last year you were with him Marva, and it was so good to see you. He found his nitch on the farm and seemed to really love doing it. He was warm and enjoyed conversations, but did not smile easily for pictures. It's so hard to lose someone suddenly without being able to say goodbye, as I did with my Marsh, but he is up there loving all of you and he will be with you in thousands of loving memories.

Marva and Family, we're so sad to hear of Jim's passing. I can't imagine what you are going through. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. I will miss seeing him in his spot in church and talking with him before church begins. I wish we could be there to celebrate his life. He was a great and caring person.
