“ Our hearts go out to the family. Though we didn't know him well (yet), he really was an inspiration to Beau. We know how much he touched all of your lives, and he left you with so many loving memories. He will be greatly missed.##imported-begin##Maureen & Rob##imported-end##

“ My sons and I wish to express our deepest sympathy to my brother-in-laws family.
Being the "baby" of my family, I wasn't very close to Jim and my sister but I have fond memories of visiting them with my mom and dad. I had a lot of fun playing with my neice and nephews, going on go-kart rides with Jim, going swimming -but only after we had to help pick pickles, which some of us kids hated!
Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.##imported-begin##Sandy Schneider and Sons##imported-end##

“ Our deepest condolences to our brother in laws family. Jim & I grew closer just chit chatting on the phone, talking about the hard times & the happy times we both experienced through life. Jim was the most carefree & easy going person that I had ever known and I am very grateful that he was my brother in law.

Sincerely,

John & June##imported-begin##John & June Verkonski##imported-end##
