

James Kenneth "Jimmy" Redmon

March 22, 1955 - April 14, 2006

James Kenneth "Jimmy" Redmon, age 51, of Trenary (formerly of Gobles), passed away Friday, April 14, 2006 in Marquette. Jimmy was born March 22, 1955 in Gobles. He was a trim carpenter by trade and provided exceptional quality to his work. He had an adventurous spirit, he hopped freight trains in his youth and did everything from hiking mountains to panning for gold. He loved to fish, hunt and sit around a campfire. He observed the beauty in nature and showed it back to us in his artwork. To know him was to love him; we will miss him greatly. He has left a big hole in our hearts. Surviving are his father and stepmother, James and Emily Redmon of Trenary; his mother, Joyce Chappell of Bloomingdale; eight sisters, Judy (Barry) McCreary, Susie Redmon, Becky (Mike) Farrell, Brenda (Dennis) Simmons, Bonnie (Paul) Crozier, Cathy (Chris) Whitney, Lorri Redmon, Cindy (Terry) Dickerson; four brothers, Dale (Deborah) Richmond, Vern (Linda) Richmond, Larry Richmond, Steve (Betty) Jarchow; several aunts and uncles; many cousins, including Bob Redmon and Terry Redmon; many nieces and nephews. With no children of his own, Jimmy filled his life with his family and friends. A memorial service will be held Sunday, April 30, 11:30 AM at the Pinedale Seventh Day Adventist Church to celebrate his life. A luncheon will follow. Those wishing may make memorials to the American Cancer Society. The family is being helped by the BLOOMINGDALE CHAPEL, D. L. Miller Funeral Home.
