“ Holidays are coming daddy. I remember when we were kids at Halloween you'd play the creepiest music when you handed out candy! Thanksgiving the loud music you played while cooking the Turkey and Christmas morning you coming down in your robe to make coffee and patiently waiting for mom so we could open presents while again you played your music in the back. It's always harder for me from October to the end of February now because I miss you so badly during that time and the memories flood my mind. I miss you so much! I hope you get to do all those things with the angels!! I love you Daddy ❤️

“ I had a really bad day today. Everyone said that with time it would get better. It's not getting better though. I have good days and bad days but I think today has been my worst. I feel like I have no one left to talk to. I told you everything some things I never told anyone else. You were always there for me wether I was wrong or right. It didn't matter to you. It seems like the worst days are when I have a bad day and I go to call you and remember you aren't there. I miss you more than words can say and wish i could just hug you and listen to you say its ok. Then I'd know for sure. I love you daddy. Hope you are having fun up there. Hope you had a huge turkey foe thanksgiving and lots of stuffing. Ill be back again soon. I love you ?

“ My dad was and still is my best friend. He knows all my secrets, my pains, and my happiest days, he meant the world to me. The last few months of his life I will cherish forever. He will always be the strongest person I know. Growing up, the family BBQ'S, and playing horseshoes in the back yard with all our friends and family was some of the best times any one could ask for, I will miss my dad and best friend dearly. Be at peace. I LOVE YOU DAD.

There are to many good memories to account for. All the BBQ's, all the parties. The most I am going to remember about our time together, are the days I came to your trailer and picked you up, The few days I called into work and said I was sick. The one day we sat and watched a movie, the next time when we went to McDonalds and had lunch, and then the best day was when we went fishing. We had a blast, even if we did fish off shore. We didn't catch nothing big enough to keep, but was a great day anyways. We all had our own special bond with you, and I am really glad that we got some of ours back. I am going to miss you dad very much.. Now the big guy has the best 2 angels I know, and I know the both of you will be on my shoulder's giving me guideness. I am not going to say goodbye, but I will say until we meet again, I love you

“ I am going to miss you terribly my dearest brother-in-law. In all the years you and Lorrie were married we had some great times and lots of fantastic memories. I remember when Alessandra was here from Brazil we had that fun Easter egg hunt at you and Lorrie's, hiding the eggs in the fish tank and making her get them out,, she had never celebrated Easter. Christmas at you twos house was so much fun with presents on top of presents. Summers, drinking ice tea and playing in the pool with all the kids. We had loads of fun all these years,,, all the BBQ's at both of your house and my house, then this past fall at your house. Always had lots of good food. I have pictures of Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners with You, Lorrie and All the kids. So many memories I can't list them all, but I will always remember them. I love you my brother. Tell my mom, dad, Cliffie and Jim I said Hi and love and miss them all. Party time now that you are all together,,, just think of you all drinking tea and playing cards. I laugh just thinking about it. I will miss you, love you Jay Bird,,, love-- Siss
