“ Jeff,

You were a truly blessed Artist. I never met someone who loved to draw like you (or could!) did freehand. I wish you could have found your place in this world. I am sorry that I didn't take you to church when you asked me. I wish I could turn back the clock but I can't. I remember riding around like CHIPS, playing are Radios (with Marks Heavy Metal), and just being silly.

Mrs. Eisenhardt I am sorry for your loss but God has a plan and he will take Evil and turn it into something Good.

Bob, Mark and Darcy I am deeply sorry for your loss. Jeff was my only brother (albeit not blood) growing up and we about broke the refrigerator fighting at his parents over something stupid (your Dad had to break us up).

Aiden,

I am sorry that you lost your Dad. I wish I could have been there for you today and your Dad before the 4th. Live your life for your Dad. You may be sad or even mad. Remember God is Good and he has a plan. I know you don't know me, but you can contact me if you want and I will do anything I can for you. I will keep you and your family in my prayers.

“ Jeff and I were inseperable as teens but we lost touch as adults. Over the years I had heard about what was going on in his life but didn't see him until recently In the past month or so he stopped by a few times and to me seemed to be doing well, getting his life together and so on. I never knew how badly he was hurting or much about his situation except he was in the apartments and working. It was a shock when I got the news and I wish I could have helped. Pease be with you bro###imported-begin##Tim Brundage###imported-end##

“ Wow. It is so hard to believe that you are gone. I was soo looking forward to seeing you at our 20 year high school reunion next year. Well, I guess now I will just have to plan on seeing you when it is my time to cross over. You will be very sadly missed, Jeff. See you again someday!! /hugs###imported-begin##Leta (Kannegieter) Arnold###imported-end##

“ I grew up with Jeff. He was like a brother to me and helped me in many situations in my life. After highschool we had lost touch but recently ran into each other. I was sad to see how life had treated him. I truely loved him like a brother and will miss him. I hope he is at peace.###imported-begin##Lori Gale (Byers)###imported-end##
