

Jerline Henson

August 30, 1941 - August 16, 2019

Jerline Henson, age 77, of Bloomingdale, passed away peacefully at home on Friday, August 16, 2019 with her family by her side. She was born on August 30, 1941 in Bradford, Arkansas to Samuel and Clara Brown. Jerline worked as a homemaker taking care of her family. She enjoyed playing cards and going to church where she was a member of Full Gospel Apostolic in Paw Paw, traveling to Arkansas and Oregon to visit her children, watching Jimmy Swaggert and spending time outside, thanking God for the beauty of the earth and her family. Jerline is survived by her husband, James, whom she spent her life with for almost 40 years; her children, Doyle Wayne Henson of Portland, Oregon, Terry Lynn Henson of Van Buren, Arkansas, James Allen Henson of Conway, Arkansas, Jeffrey Wade Henson of Arkansas, Cindy Lou Benson of Jacksonville, Arkansas and Sheila Ann Slocum of Bloomingdale; her 11 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren; her sister, Joyce; many other nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents; her first husband, John Doyle Henson; 2 brothers, Chester and Barley Brown; sisters, Carmel Gilmore and Irene Sliter. The family will meet friends on Wednesday, August 21, 2019, from 10 AM until time of service at 12 PM at the Bloomingdale Chapel, D. L. Miller Funeral Home, with Rev Jimmy Blackston officiating. Interment will follow in Tucker Cemetery. www.dlmillerfuneralhome.com.

“ I will never forget Jerline getting her dog to sing with her when they lived here in Arizona. She would sing “I love little Troubles” and the dog would start howling with her. It was hilarious. We had some good times. I haven’t seen her in recent years, but it sounds like her faith was strong, so I plan to see her again someday in heaven. Love and prayers to all of her family and friends. I'M THE GIRL THAT IS SICK AND TIRED OF BEING SO NICE AND JUST GETTING FUCKED OVER BY EVERYONE IN THE END.

“ She was an amazing lady who helped shape who I am today for the last 20 or so years. You will be forever missed.
