“ The first time I met you was in Michigan at Aunt Wanda's house after my brother graduated bootcamp. You sure did have stories to tell. You never called us kids by our names, it was baby, sweetheart, or angel. I swear you were the sweetest man I ever knew. My mom, Herald, was blessed to have you. I'll miss and I love you Uncle John.

“ He nicked name me rubber duck, because he called one evening and asked Ashley what I was doing and she said taking a bath with a rubber duck and boom, it stuck. lol. And we usually shared a toast of a ice cold bud light. Before he passed he made sure to ask to speak with rubber duck one last time. He will be missed.

My Uncle John was a beautiful man who loved his family and always provided..... He was an adiment hunter and fisherman who when he took us fishing there was a story and a nickname Virgil Ward..... I loved my Uncle very much and he always called me Flaky Jakey from Albuquerque I never went without anything from him and he is truly appreciated and greatly missed..... I know that you are with Grandma and Grandpa and Uncle Sam and Uncle Joe and Uncle Speedy Mary and Pat..... I love you always and you have a special place in my heart..... Fly high for you can spread your wings and watch and guide us..... Your knowledge is installed in me
