“ I have so many of her. home made outfits to special gifts when you turned 13 to banging on the steps at 3 in the morning to wake up wake up Santa's been here. To snapping beans and shuck peas. a couple of my favorites are. When me my sister, our husbands and grandma went out to the bowling alley till 2 am grandma had danced all night long. My husband had a little to much to drink puked on grams floor in his sleep. And her reply was oh hell honey that aint a thing cause it was worth it i aint had so much fun sense granny got her boob caught in a wringer. My most recent is taking her to Bronson park to see the lights and stuff one last time with grand kids , great grand kids, and great great grandkids the laughter the singing in the car. And boy was she ever so grateful that I had heated seats. To the tears of joy she had to be able to go with us. As grandma would say I LOVE YOU DARLING. We love you grandma and we all will miss you.
