“ There will never be enough words to describe what this lady means to me and so many others. She is my ma, my friend, my sister in God, and my mentor. We took care of each other. She gives me strength and confidence. We made it through many difficult transitions and situations, not just at Mr Grocery, but in life. When I first started a business, I went to her house and begged her to do my taxes. She glared at me and said “Hell no! You’re smart enough to do your own. Get going.” For years I would sequester myself in her house at tax time and pull my hair out for three or four days until they were done. She’d guide me but never do them for me. And if I asked a stupid question, it was obvious by her face! She taught me how to run that store and make it through tough days. When I needed emotional support, she was one of my first calls. The community lost a mother, sister, aunt, cousin, friend, and mentor. Such a kind heart. Never said no to helping people, even those she knew wouldn’t help back. Ma, you will be missed and you are leaving a huge hole no one can fill. May we all stand strong and remember you and your lovely heart as we walk these days until we meet again. Tell my mom I love her...

“ It breaks my heart to hear that such another great friend has passed. Joyce was like my second sister growing up & always was there for me to give a lending hand if i needed it. If i was hungry or needed a place to stay Joyce was there. I thought of Joyce as family because i grew up always running around with my best friend Buckwheat which was Joyce's brother may he rest in piece & i was able to then come closer to Joyce & the rest of her family through the years. Joyce was a great friend & i am so glad that she was a big part of my life. She was a great mother & always made sure everybody was taken care of, including us bigger kids. It is a sad day for me to hear that we lost such a great person to early in life. RIP Joycee God BLess!

“Joyce I will forever remember you my childhood friend. We spent a lot of time together in Elementary and Middle School. At your house or mine when we lived briefly in Grand Junction, or walking around, sometimes we even walked out to Saddle Lake. You were always so caring, and we could talk about anything. The last time I saw you was in 2003, I was up there for a short period of time, and saw you at the store. We had a couple of good conversations. I know you will be greatly missed my friend. RIP

“Joyce I will miss you. I have known you my entire life. You were my aunt Brenda’s best friend and along with that came putting up with us (Michael, Kelley, Caitlin, Jenny and JW). Not a memory growing up in the junction doesn’t involve you. Always watching out for us. After aunt Brenda and Moe died you stepped up and became my aunt Joyce. Loved us all like your own. No matter how much time passed I could still come visit and always get a hug and you tell me you love me. You were there for us all when we lost uncle Donnie too, Telling us it’ll be ok. I hope you knew how much I love and care about you. You were a rock for so many people and I thank you for that. Rest easy Joyce. Tell Aunt Brenda I love her.
