“ Kay Alderman was my foster mom. She accepted me into her home when no one else would because my juvenile delinquent behavior. She was a very strong, independent woman and she gave me structure, discipline, reward for self improvement , despite my rebellious attitude. She did help me much more than I knew then and I want her family to know how beautiful she was and I respect her and want to say , THANK YOU KAY! I'm so sorry for your loss and my prayers are with family and friends. May GOD now rest her sweet soul!! AMEN!
