“ Katherine was my aunt, my father (John Hager), was her little brother. I'm Robin Hager and much younger than any of my cousins I remember calling them "aunts". Aunt Juanita was really the only one I knew by sight and her kids Joey and Theresa.

There was a wedding in the mid-70's, will all of my cousins there. They were all so beautiful and lovely, but we sat off in a dark corner alone. I wish I could have known them all. I kept meeting my 2nd cousin throughout life.

Looking back at the times we went down to visit Aunt Katherine; she always greeted us and asked us to come inside. My father and I use to go down to the ol' homestead to get away from the house!! When I was very young there was a tavern next door (I think it was there), my dad and I walked in and dad was greeted by name...I will always keep these precious memories alive.

To the Aunt I didn't get to spend enough time with, farewell!

Robin E Hager (Savoie)

ps. hoping Uncle Eddie's Houseboat is still there!!
