“ Ron, Jim, Karen, Ruthann and Family's, We are so sorry for your loss of your Wonderful Mother our prayer's are with you at this sad time. I can hear Kate saying now, "Weep for me a while if you must and then let me go because I have some cookies to bake and some candy to make. My earthly body has just warn out and now I can have a new one that has lots of get up and go. I think they are calling me, I have to go, it is my turn up to bowl" Fond memory's of a Mothers love you will always have and keep forever in your heart's. I will always treasure the times I spent long ago watching kate make the perfet jello, or seeing so many cookies layed out and her making just the right fork imprint in the peanutbutter cookies :-)
Thank you Kate for teaching me how! Love, Darlene and Duane Begeman##imported-begin##Duane and Darlene Begeman##imported-end##

“ RuthAnn,
My heart goes out to you on the death of your mom. It seems so very final when both of our parents have passed. I trust that your family, friends, and church family will comfort you in this time of loss.
