“ I was blessed to get to spend a few days with you before you left this world but it broke my heart to see you suffering. The part that meant the most to me was you still making your jokes. You amazed me with your memories of Torrie and I getting ready for our very first dance. You made me laugh when you said I drank all your whiskey. You will be forever loved and missed.

“ Although we have been apart for many years, I will miss my big brother. I have many fond memories of our growing up years. As we remember him today, may we know the suffering is over and pray he has found peace. I found a poem I'd like to share.

*Life is but a stopping place, a pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.*

*We all have different journeys,
different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay...*

*Our destination is a place,
far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
for some the journey's slow.*

*And when the journey finally ends, we'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace, together with the Lord*

“ St. Matthew 10:29-32. Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? And one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. 30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. 31 Fear ye not therefore ye are of more value than many sparrows. 32. Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in Heaven. God's Amazing Grace

“ This is going to be a hard day for me, saying goodbye to a good friend and a dad. We have had a lot of good times together fishing, hunting and just hanging out with you. I know you have been in so much pain for so long, but now you are pain free. and now you are in heaven with grandma, grandpa Donnell, Bob and my grandpa Nielsen. tell them I love them and we will be together again sometime. Love you and rest in peace.

“Dad I miss you so much. I hear the door shutting downstairs and I jump up to run down there thinking to myself that you are up walking by yourself again...then it hits me that you aren't there. Madison said to me last night "mom do you want me to see if grandpa wants to eat" then she realized it too. She helped take care of you more than I ever expected or asked for.

On Monday you laid in bed and had your arms reaching up into the air. I leaned down and hugged you and you said "goodbye". Tuesday at 12:50 you were in horrible pain and couldn't breath. With tears in your eyes I kissed your forehead and told you that you didn't have to fight anymore. There was no need to suffer this way any longer and it was OK to let go. At 1:15 you took your last breath. This is the hardest thing ever but I know that you are healed and no longer suffering, . I love you
