“ I would like to send my condolence to the Gendron family. I noticed that Kevin was only 49 years of age. For families this is a young age to lose a loved one to death. I am a Bible student and recently began contacting folks that are undergoing what your family is. Having talked to many people over the years I have found that most are aware of what religions teach about death and the future, but not what the Bible says. Lingered questions that one has are answered right from the Bible. I've shared two booklets: What Happens to Us When We Die? and When Someone You Love Dies.... The comfort that comes from God's Word can embrace our hearts and minds when no human can. The scriptures can be found in any Bible. If anyone would like one or both of the booklets, at no cost, contact me at my e-mail address. Our family has experienced what you're going through, but my brother-in-law was younger. Please accept my sympathy, Cathy Taylor

“ To the Gendron Family, Becky and Tommy I'm so sorry for your loss and thinking of you both. It's not easy, I lost my brother Bob 13 years ago and there is not a day that goes by that I don't think of him. The memories that I have is when you guys lived in a trailer by Grandma Gendron's and we would come to visit and we all played together on the side porch and got all dirty and our moms would be soooo mad. I hope the memories that you have of Kevin help you get through the tough days ahead. God Bless, you will always hold a place in my heart. R.I.P. my dear cousin, and I will always love you!!!

I didn't know Kevin all that well but I will never forget him. He loved to talk about conspiracy theories and he loved to cook really good food. I will miss seeing him and hope that he is happier wherever he is.
