Kevin :You are missed so very much. I can hardly believe you are not here, I go to call you several times a day. We miss spending weekends with you more then you will ever know. Your daughter (Ashley) talks about how you are her angel now and with her and I all the time. Last week we were at her school at a program, and she comes over to me and wispers that daddy is here and having a great time watching us. I could of cried. She looks up and gives her great big smile to the sky. Just wanting you to know our heart's feel broke, but we know you are in a wonderful place and not suffering anymore. But you will always and forever be in our hearts and souls here and we will be looking for you and loving until we all meet up again one day. Biggest hugges and kisses Ashley and Mary XOXOXOXO my Dad was a hard working man.....I never seen him without a job and even as he was very ill...he was dreaming about workingtelling us what he had to do to his semi! He was a wonderful man.....an amazing father, son, Brother and friend! He taught me many things and was always there when I called! I will miss meeting him in various places.....like Joplin, Missouri, Steel Sity. Indiana, Ohio and just about everywhere else across the country.....as we both traveled and ALWAYS made it a point to stop and have horrible truck stop food! lol I miss you dad.....our time together was way to short! I can only be comforted by the fact that you are no longer in pain!

I am so proud of you daddy. You fought a fight that no else would have had the strength to fight. You lived longer than expected because you were not going to let anyone tell you when it was your time. I know you are are in heaven smiling down on us, probably hauling a load for god. I am so happy you are no longer suffering and finally at peace. I will miss you will every breath I take daddy and will cherish every moment we spent together. You were the best dad a child could ask for, thank you for that.

Tonya Boyd - April 20, 2012 at 10:25 AM

My prayers are with you all, in your this time of sorrow...but look to the hill for which cometh our strength for a better tomorrow...cherish the times shared and although the hurt is always for forever and a while, cherished memories often make us smile.
