“ I am his daughter Lisa’s friend from Tennessee. I traveled with Lisa to visit her dad to Michigan. He was such a wonderful human being! He welcomed me in his home like he had known me all his life. I talked to him on the phone several times when we came back to Tennessee and he always told me that I was welcome to come back anytime I wanted to. I’m so sad that I never made it back. He was one in a million and I know Jesus is more than happy to have him! Enjoy Paradise you deserve it!

“ Dear Loretta and Mikey:
I am very saddened for your loss of a wonderful husband and father. I pray your best memories of him will sustain you during the bad times. I will certainly miss the good times and laughs we shared — he always kept us laughing. May God be with you and help you with your difficult days!
Love you lots,
