“ I didn't know Larry, but I understand the love to ride...the experience of the wind touching your face and experiencing the beauty of God's world...the ultimate experience of freedom; the enjoyment - the bond that develops of passing riders for love, life and pleasure. Larry knew it. He lived for it and loved it. May the wings of freedom carry him into the next phase of pleasure - knowing he will be loved and carried to his home in heaven. My prayer is that God will bless him for all his goodness of helping others.##imported-begin##Carol Panichella##imported-end##
