

Leah Nadine Huyser

December 27, 2001 - February 15, 2015

Leah N. Huyser, age 13, of Gobles, passed away unexpectedly Sunday, February 15, 2015 at her home. Leah was born Dec. 27, 2001 in Kalamazoo the daughter of Mark and Andrea (Muller) Huyser and has lived all of her life in the Gobles area. She was homeschooled as a seventh grade student and previously attended Gobles Public Schools until 5th grade, where she still played in the Middle School Band, and was actively involved with Journey Youth Group, Fusion.

She had an infectious smile, loved baking, art, sewing, reading, hunting, fishing, camping and helping others. She was the type of person that always wanted to make everyone else smile. Surviving are her parents, Mark and Andrea Huyser of Gobles; brother, Caleb; grandmothers, Lois Muller of Gobles, Joan Huyser of Holland; and many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Funeral services will be Saturday 12:00 noon at Journey Family Church, in the Gobles Middle School, with Pastor Gary Napp officiating. Interment will be in Kendall Cemetery. The family will meet friends after the service in the Gobles Middle School cafeteria. The family suggests memorials be made to either the Gobles Middle School Band Boosters or Journey Family Church Fusion Youth Group instead of flowers. Arrangements by the Gobles Chapel, D. L. Miller Funeral Home.

“ I was lucky enough to have Leah in my kindergarten class. She was a breath of fresh air, always so positive and helpful to others. Her smile, sparkling eyes and energetic personality were infectious to all those around her. I am sure she is making all those in heaven smile. She will be a beautiful little angel in our hearts forever. Sending thoughts and prayers your way Mark, Andrea and Caleb. Lynn VanFleet
