

Leonard Lee Hicks

September 29, 1971 - October 20, 2025

A limb has fallen from the family tree. We hear a voice that whispers, "Grieve not for me. Remember the best times, the laughter, the joy. The good life I lived while I was strong."

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of our beloved brother, Leonard Lee Hicks, who left us on October 20, 2025.

Born on September 29, 1971, Leonard brought joy, humor, and strength to everyone who knew him. He was a cherished son, a loyal brother, and a devoted father, and husband. His spirit was kind, his laugh unforgettable, and his heart always open.

As a cherished brother, he was a source of laughter, memories, and unconditional love and support. To his spouse Susan, he was not only a partner but a confidant—steadfast and devoted in all the moments that made up a life together.

He believed in the simple joys: time with loved ones, hard and honest work, and the beauty of a quiet evening. His legacy is not one of grand gestures, but of steady presence, humble love, and a heart that gave more than it ever asked in return.

Leonard is survived by his wife, Susan Hicks; children, Alex Hicks and Sophia Torres; grandchildren, Royal, Royce, Journey, and Gionni; mother, Katherine Hicks; siblings, Raymond, Rosalyn, Frederick, Michael (Denise) Goolsby of Gurnee, IL, Timothea Morris of East Point, GA and several nieces and nephews. Leonard is preceded in death by his father, Willie Goolsby Jr. of Macon, GA.

Though a limb has fallen from our family tree, we take comfort in knowing that Leonard's roots run deep within us. His spirit, his values, and his love remain alive in the stories we tell and the lives we lead.

He will be deeply missed, forever loved, and never forgotten.

“ I didn't have the pleasure of knowing Leonard closely, but from afar, I saw the kind of man he was. I watched how he stepped up to be a loving father to Sofia, and not just a husband, but a true friend and source of strength for Susan. Through her many heartbreaking moments—the loss of her dad and brothers—he was her rock, someone she could hold on to in her darkest hours. I deeply admired that about him and have nothing but the utmost respect for him.

My heart aches that I can't be there for my dear friend Susan, my niece Sofia, and the kids. I hope they know how truly sorry I am for this immense loss.

Until you meet again, rest in peace, young man. Rest in peace.
