“ It is with a heavy heart that we loose another family member, I was from the next generation so I did not know Les real well but my parents Bob and Vi Martindale knew him quite well. The Really sad thing is as our families get bigger they get farther apart and we loose touch with our history the Merrimans, Freestones, Martindales, Jenks and so on. My prayers are with all the family and friends of Les and hopefully one of these days we will all be to get together to share stories as well as our own histories that we are making.

“ Doug, Dorothy and families,
My mom and I are very sad to hear about your dad. As my mom said, "I can't remember when I didn't know that family, 70 + years, back to Bernice". There are so many memories with my grandmother and your grandmother being friends and back in the day neighbors. Again, we are so sorry for your loss of your dad, you're all in our thoughts and prayers.
