“ Praying God’s peace over the whole Stone family. I remember Linda as both a mom and then a grandma who loved her family fiercely and wholeheartedly. There was no doubt.

“ Oh sweet Linda, you will truly be missed beyond measure. You weren't just my sweet neighbor and friend the last decade of my life, but my family. Not a day went by that you didn't call me and if a day or two went by without your call, I always knew something was wrong. You loved me and my family so good!! You always brought my kids a treat or always handed them a treat at your house that it got to the point they always expected that chocolate fudge sickle or massive lollipop. 😞 Living here on 3850th Street will never be the same without you!!

Our friendship.... You knew more about my life and even more about myself at times than anyone else, and you always helped me navigate through with your best advice. You were truly the most loyal friend ever!! I looked up to you and all of your wisdom that got you through all of your hardships. I have never known someone who LOVED life as much as you and who never gave up through the struggles and ALWAYS stayed positive. I find myself to be a lot like you!! Even through your hard battle with cancer you said every day “I will fight this and I will win” and although it was your time to go, I believe you won the good fight being set free from the pain.

I might never understand why you had to go when you weren't ready and still had so much you wanted to do, but I believe that God will show his goodness through this heartache and be our strength to get by. Like your husband told me this morning, you are probably in heaven and already mowing the grass. 😊❤️🙏 MISS YOU, sweet friend!!!

“ To the Stone family I'm keeping you all in my prayers. To my dearest friend Linda, I will miss our phone calls everyday, I will miss sneaking off to the casinos, I will miss our Ladies day at the fair, I will miss going camping just me and you. I will miss you everyday of the rest of my life. We have had so much fun for many years. I'm not sure what I'm going to do to deal with such a great loss. It all ended early this morning. Till we meet again, rest easy my friend. This is not how we had planned the end of our story. I will always love and miss you forever. Sandra
