Lois Wouch
age 78
of Gobles

Lois Wouch (née Lipkin) passed away on Saturday, February 28, 2026, in Detroit, Michigan, following a long illness.

Born on August 3, 1947, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, she was the daughter of Howard and Sylvia Lipkin. Lois earned both her bachelor's and master's degrees from Temple University and dedicated many years to the Philadelphia School District as a reading specialist before relocating to the Midwest. She had resided in the Gobles area since 1996.

Lois is survived by her daughter, Kimberley Wouch of Gobles; her sister, Eileen (Jahn) Nolan of Warminster, Pennsylvania; her nephews, Howard (Eileen) Goldfine and David Goldfine; her great-nephew and great-niece, Andrew Goldfine and Lexi Goldfine; and several cousins. She was preceded in death by her husband of 21 years, Gerald.

According to her wishes, burial has taken place at Kendall Cemetery in Pine Grove Township, where she is laid to rest beside her husband, Gerald Wouch.
