“ *My friend Lorraine,
Always smiling loved to laugh
Bouncy walking down life's path
Swing a golf club you bet she could Play those 18 you bet she would
Read her bible every day
Talked to Jesus loved to pray
Told her silly little stories kept the kids in delight
But her cookies and pies were their favorite sight
Played all kinds of games loved to crochet and read
Most of all though she loved to please
We saw many a sunset loved to swim and to fish
Having friends come to visit on stars make a wish
The memories are plenteous days full of fun
The only problem is ,seems like we'd only begun
But this I know friend you'll be standing at Heavens Gate
All I can say is I can't wait ICANT WAIT ICANT WAIT !*

“ Bob and I loved our visits with Lorraine, always shared about the Lord when ever we were together. Bob and I took her with us when we went to visit Alan in Texas... it was her first flight and she clung to Bob all the way there. She loved to laugh too.... Thinking of you all during this time of loss. Just remember, that she is now rejoicing in the Lord's presence.

“ So many wonderful memories of time spent as a teenager at the Steck's home. We always teased her and called her Dora....she was so sweet and kind and always gracious no matter how many kids invaded her house!
She was a wonderful example of a Christian wife and mother. I loved her lots and am so sorry for her loss...much joy in Heaven this morning I'm sure!

“ Mrs Steck loved her Jesus and it showed. She was a sweet, sweet lady and it was an honor to know her. She's home now and from that knowledge her family can draw comfort.
