“ I'm looking at the picture and most of all remembering the laughter. I never visited with Luella that I didn't get in a wonderful laugh and hear a great story. She grew up with my mother, Ellen Scott Ludwig, down the road in the summers. When we came along, Luella's family was living in Bangor and we had lots of fun with her girls. Years later, after my mother died, I felt a strong connection with Luella because of our shared past and that's what I think I will miss the most. I'm really sad not to have been with you all as you celebrated her great spirit.##imported-begin##Meredith Ludwig##imported-end##

“ I wish I could share with Joyce and Vicki the photos from Floyd & Luella's wedding that I recall of her gorgeous red hair flowing down her back under her white bridal veil. Stunningly beautiful hair that always comes to mind when I see her. They were a striking couple.##imported-begin##Philip & Gay Merrill##imported-end##
