“ Aunt Marge was always good about supporting me every year for the diabetes walk that I participated in. I really appreciated the support, especially after I was diagnosed as a diabetic.

I also remember visiting her and Uncle Sy in the basement house many times. The best times were swimming in the pool or sitting on the chair swing. One Christmas Eve we were visiting and my sister was worried about being out too late and missing Santa. Aunt Marge sat Kris down and told her that Santa knew where she was and would stop by again if we weren't home in time because we'd been good girls.

Laurie, Tammy, Cindy & Bill - you're all in my thoughts and prayers. Sorry that I cannot be there for the memorial but with the recent move to Tennessee, it's just too hard.
