

Marjorie Elizabeth Bollaert

July 28, 1913 - November 6, 2009

On November 6, 2009, after a long and satisfying life, Marjorie Elizabeth Bollaert died. She was born on July 28, 1913 in Watervliet, Michigan. She had been a resident of Holland Home – Fulton Manor in Grand Rapids for the past 5 years. Marge probably would have traveled the world had she not met the handsome and charming Julian with whom she shared a wonderful marriage of 56 years. She worked alongside Julian on their beautiful farm. She also put her special touch on their home, their yard and all the delicious meals she prepared over the years. Julian died in 1996, and in keeping with Marge's resilience and toughness, she did not let this enormous loss defeat her. With the help and support of her wonderful neighbors and friends, she continued to tend to her very large home and surrounding gardens in South Haven until her move to Grand Rapids. Her family will be forever grateful to those who made it possible for her to stay in her home as long as she did. She was preceded in death by one sibling, Dr. Richard Herrick of Hobart, Indiana. She is survived by two daughters, Cherie (Robert) Giles of Grand Rapids and Juliene (Robert) Gibson of St. Petersburg, Florida, as well as several nieces and nephews. Her strength, sense of humor and no-nonsense approach to life were valuable examples for her daughters. She was quite a character and was greatly loved and admired by them and their spouses. The family would like to extend the sincerest of thanks to all of the Fulton Manor and Hospice staff who touched Marjorie's life during her time there. They were beyond wonderful and knowing how well she was loved and cared for was a huge comfort to her family. A graveside remembrance will be held Tuesday, November 10, 11:00 a.m. at Chambers Cemetery, South Haven, MI.

“ Cherie and Juliene...

So sorry to hear about your Mom. She was one of the special people in my "growing up" years, always so friendly and welcoming. I know you will have many happy memories you will cherish. I do.
