

Mark A. Wieleba

December 16, 1963 - March 21, 2021

Mark A. Wieleba, age 57 of Kalamazoo, passed away Sunday, March 21, 2021. Mark was born December 16, 1963 in Kalamazoo, the son of Edward and Sandra Wieleba. Mark was a loving father, beloved son and gentle husband. He loved quirky and loud souls and encouraged them to find their own paths to joy, especially his children. Mark never judged anyone for their faith or lack of, he knew their hearts. He was very clear to his children that if they did their best, did no harm, and took no crap that he was proud and that was enough. It is not fair, but Mark understood that life wasn't fair and it was our duty to do what we must to make up for that. Mark never said he was perfect but he gave it his all. A friend told me this, "I will never look at a big moon again without thinking of you and Mark and how much love you had and how you looked at each other." Mark and Marci are sealed together for time and all eternity and this is what gives us hope.

Surviving is his wife of 31 years, Marci; children, Scott Mayrand, William Wieleba and his children, Sandy Rose Wieleba, Sarah Shalie Wieleba, Mark Alan Wieleba, Jr., Angela Joy Wieleba; siblings, Nikki Wieleba, Edward Wieleba, Jr., Leandra Stubbs; his mother, Sandra Wieleba. He was preceded in death by his father, Edward Wieleba.

Funeral services will take place on Friday, April 2, 2021, at noon at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, Kalamazoo, Bishop Nelson officiating.
