So sorry to hear of Mama Karr's passing. She was such a joy to have around. I remember Easter 2 years ago when Mama and Martin came over to the Farm. It was a wonderful time. I will always miss you. Love Laurie.

“ Sweetest, comical, loving sister you could have. One of her heart wrenching stories to make one laugh, until they fell off the chair, was telling how poor they were. And how much they loved cooked pork. They lived in a house elevated off the ground about 4 feet with high steps. The hogs used to stay under this house because they could not afford a hog pen. One day the house caught on fire, burned to the ground and cooked the hogs. She said it was the best cooked pork she ever had! Then she would sit and laugh till the tears rolled down her face.
Such a hard working LADY! Love you sis!

“ I have known Marolene my entire life. Growing up, the Hessey and Karr families were like peas and carrots. So many fond memories of Friday night get togethers, 4th of July Fireworks, and helping gather eggs from the hen house. Marolene was such a dear friend to my mother. After my mother's stroke, she made sure to visit often and bring baked goods right from the oven with her last visit only a couple of weeks ago. She always made sure everyone else was taken care of before taking care of herself. Her smile and laugh will never be forgotten. Heaven is now home to a very special lady.
