“ She was the best grandma! I have a lot of great memories but right now I keep thinking of her great southern cooking. Mmmm, fried chicken, beans with cornbread and her homemade biscuits. My mom and I were just talking about her cooking yesterday and now I cant stop thinking about it.

“ I am so sorry for your loss,I will never forget You Maxine,I loved you like you were my mom. I have so many fond memories of you.To Rose and Judy,I want to say I'm so proud of you girls for taking care of your Mom.Dementia is a horrible disease and I know how hard it was to see her so angry,and when she would hit or kick at you girls and the many times you left there and cried and still faithfully went there to bring her treats and new clothes,and just to be there ,if only to sit ,just to be there.I know your Mom if she could have,would have said thanks girls,I know she would be so proud.God Speed Maxine,RIP...Deb Chrisman

“ To my cousins
Our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time of loss.
I will always remember when I was younger and visiting, grandma bringing me to the house for the day and Aunt Maxine was making breakfast with her homemade blueberry jam and syrup. Then spending the day picking blueberries, eating more than I picked.
Even though she has moved on to a greater home to wait for us.
Those memories will always keep her with me in heart.
