“ I am very sorry for your loss. Melissa and i were childhood best friends. We were like sisters and people thought we were twins. We had many adventures together from the age of 2 until the end of 6th grade when her mom moved them to Lincolnshire Apartments. Together we were known as Mic and Vick. I have a picture somewhere of Melissa with her dad, Bobby Hart. She is just a crawling stage in the photo. I have photos from our childhood too. When i find those photos i want to send them to you, her sons.

“ You were the strongest person I knew. You became sick when I was fresh in high school and started fighting for your health and disability. It's been almost 10 years since then, and you fought; you fought hard to stay healthy, to do the best you could do for your body, but more importantly, you fought harder to keep your family healthy and positive. You were unselfish and always giving, never hesitating to help out friends, family and loved ones. Although I hurt, and I miss you terribly, you're no longer suffering or in pain. I'm glad I could take you to see Stevie Nicks, your favorite artist before you passed, like you had always dreamt. I miss you, and I love you, Mom.
