“ Dear Bryan, Curtis and Courtney, We are at such a loss for adequate words to express our sadness and shock over your loss. Pam was so young, so fit and so full of life. We still can't quite wrap our heads around this sudden loss of someone who we considered to be a friend and whose presence gave a special sparkle to our lives here in Arabia, as a friend and as a unique and wonderful member of our community. We will cherish our memories of all the softball tournaments where we knew we could count on Pam's smile and enthusiasm, both on the field and in the stands. She will be missed by so many people. Our hearts go out to you, Bryan, Curtis and Courtney. We send our love and our prayers and hope that you will find strength in the love and the memories that you share.##imported-begin##Tim and Barbie Yeomans##imported-end##

“ "Bry-AN!" it runs over and over, i can hear it, picture it, admonishing & hilarious, and always loving, with that look in her eye at him... She laughed, at the craziness of things, and it was infectious. She lived, playing well and hosting warmly and befriending ably, and it was true and good. She loved, her friends and her family and her kids and her Bryan, and it will be unforgettable.###imported-begin###John Wolf###imported-end##

“ Dear Bryan, Kurtis and Courtney,
We were shocked to the core of hearing the tragic news of Pam's passing. She was one of the first people I met arriving in Dhahran 16 years ago. Her strength, generosity and genuine ability to make others feel at home was apparant early in our friendship. She was a caring individual, a proud mama and shared and valued an amazing relationship with her soulmate Bryan. I can not remember a time where she did not meet a friend with a smile on her face. On entering a gathering, you would not have to see her but hear the laughter to know that she was "in the house". She was a genuine person. Genuine in her feelings. Genuine in her actions. Genuine in being true to herself. We will miss her.
Our condolences and heartfelt wishes go out to Bryan, Kurtis and Courtney and her extended family.
God Bless.##imported-begin##Anna, Mark Androski and family##imported-end##

“ Our sincere sympathies to Bryan, Kurtis, Courtney and family. We just couldn't believe the news and we are deeply saddened. Pam always saw the funny side of things, was so vibrant and happy. Pam loved her family dearly and was so proud of her children. We will always have fond memories of Pam - especially our softball tournaments together - playing for Canada Dry in Dhahran. Pam was a terrific softball player and a great team mate. I still remember how Pam cooked breakfast at the Metropolitan Hotel in Dubai because they weren't open and we were hungry. Pam you always put others first before yourself. Your kindness and generosity was always appreciated. Pam you will be dearly missed, never forgotten and in our hearts always.##imported-begin##Rick and Leanne Jennings##imported-end##

“ What a terrible tragedy. We will hold Pam in our hearts forever. All of this you already know, but she was a brilliant friend to all of us, and her death will leave a hole that will never be filled. We all had such fun together over the last few years and that was in no small part due to Pam. Her generosity, her humour and kind spirit. I will never know how she could hit a golf ball and tell us a story at the same time!! Or ride 20 miles on our bikes and talk the ENTIRE TIME!!!! Pam and Laura beating everyone in the Monday Night Golf League. We know why though..... It WASN'T water in those bottles! Her chicken wings on a Wednesday night. The gift she had of welcoming all and any to her home. Her entire extended family can be so proud of the woman she was and her lesson to us to grab life by the throat and ride like the wind..... She continues to pave the way to goodness for us.

Much love, Lorilee, Beatriz, Laura, Sonia and Karla..... Her golf crew.##imported-begin##The Golf Girls##imported-end##

“ THIS IS DEBBIE --

Pam's death hit me hard. I knew she was wonderful. I knew she was a sincere friend. But, what was it that brought me to my knees when I heard of Pam's passing? Through my tears and sadness I've thought about this. It wasn't just the loss of a friend. It was a loss of one of the very few constants in life. Pam was a constant. She was always there. Always happy. Always involved in whatever it was she was doing. And she made whoever wanted to be a part important. She made you count -- there were no judgments. She was a constant. I will miss her terribly. My love and prayers will always be with Bryan, Kurtis, and Courtney. What a beautiful family she left behind...

THIS IS VAUGHN --

You came into my life and instantly became a dear friend that I knew would be a part of my life forever. I will always remember your laughter, your thoughtfulness, your strong will to make others feel comfortable and most of all I will never, ever forget your love for LIFE, friends and family. Girl your love will be so missed by so many! You are in my heart forever. God bless you.##imported-begin##Vaughn and Deborah Martin##imported-end##
