“ Oh my dear Patsy.....Thanks for the memories my friend. I could go on and on, one vivid memory is you and Charles coming home one day, and i was mowing your lawn, and Charles said i didn't know we had black neighbors... You will be missed, but now resting in the arms of Jesus. I'll see you on the other side. Love you Patsy

“ This is my mom, I just want everyone to know she had lots of grandkids it was too much to name all of them, also she had many nieces and nephews from all over different states and again so many hard to put all names down, we did not want to forget anyone so we just said we had lots of family, she loved many people that came into her life. We all know who she loved and we pray all of you know how she loved all of u she tried to do anything she could to let u know how much everyone meant to her! If u excuse the lack of names I thank you, the Miller funeral care provider would have not been able to list all people she loved, thank you for understanding, And I am so overwhelmed that I have not called all I was needed to call about moms passing, I am going to keep trying to recall but if I've left anyone out I'm sorry and hope u find out ! I've come to see that being a only child dealing with such loss is not easy too do with out my mom telling me what I should have done correctly. I hope she will not be mad from me not paying attention and I still must tell all of u that I see how bad I am at being here without my mom telling me what to do, it use to make me mad but now I wish she was here to fix all my mess. I'm sure I shall be a mess for rest of my life. Now I get why nobody needs to be only child...if not from my kids help and guidance past 10 days I would still be crying hideing and wanting to be in denial. God has mom, and I'm hanging out for God's showing me I must do what I can. And that is why I want you all to know we appreciate each of u pray to give me guidance to do what my mom asked of me. Life will hurt but I think it will show us things to be learned from our pain! Bless us all and mom I love u and please give me minute to get my self together!!!!

Pat was always kind and helpful. Enjoyed very much when the players decided to play music into the we night. My husband Billy thought very highly of her and she loved him just the same.

Our darling Patsy has passed on..So much love for her & her family.She was sweet ,funny,and a joy to be with. She loved everyone,she loved life...A song keeps coming to mind this week..”Lit a Fire”. You Lit a fire Patsy, and now you’re in my every thought.Rest well dear one...I’ve been through the desert,I’ve been across the sea, I’ve been walking through the mountains,I’ve wondered through the trees ..I have been trying to find her, want to give what I got..She Lit a Fire and now she’s in my every thought...
