Grandma Pat "Gigi" was an incredible grandma and great-grandmother. She made us feel loved and seen. Our lives will not be the same without her warm smile but we know her love will guide us. Love and miss you Gigi.

“ I was lucky enough to be loved by other Mother "Pat" 😊....From day one she treated me just like one of her own..I got to go on trips to Maple Hill Mall, West Main Mall, Movie Theatre's and many places to go out & eat. That was a BIG DEAL in the late 60's....Both Ang & Pat treated me like Gold and I am forever grateful for their love. A love they chose to give me til they couldn't be here anymore.. To my Best Buddy John & Sister Angel 😊....Thanks for taking Great Loving Care of Mom Pat and Always calling me Family. ❤️ You both.

Pat was always fun to be around she and I were classmates and friends since high school. I will always remember how she would walk and do cartwheels going downtown for lunch. Each month it was always fun to see her at our class breakfast, you would here, "oh here comes Pat". She always smiled and acted like life couldn't be better, no complaining from her, she made the world a better place and sure will be missed. Pat Hunsberger Koning

“ Condolences to JD...Angel and the Distefano family. Pat always welcomed us into her home though the years. Many great memories hanging out...the flicking of the basement lights when we cranked the music too loud!!! Great lady.
