“ Pat and I were friends back in our early teens (13-14) or so. She and her family lived near us and I would go to church with them. Her dad and another preacher had a church in an old storefront in South Haven and her sweet mom would drive us all up there on Sundays. I stayed overnight with her family and she spent the night at my house many times. We had some good times that I will always remember. My hope is that her family can find comfort in knowing that you all will see her again someday. May she Rest In Peace. Diana Williams DeWitt
