“ Dear Kellogg family, my deepest condolences. We last visited Paul and Ellen in 2010 in Bloomingdale and had a wonderful dinner. Mr. Kellogg was always the calmest, most sincere, honest man. Memories include attending White Sox, Cubs and Lane Tech football games in the late 70s. My birthday is January 21st and every January 24th I'd at least give him a thought from afar. His 92 years were a blessing to all whose path he crossed. Love and peace to all of you.
