“ Even though I only knew Paul for less than a year, it felt like I had known him an entire lifetime, or so I had wished. Paul always made me feel so special, whenever I would go into his room for a visit, he always had a huge smile, and would say; well hello sweetheart!! And he would grab my hand and kiss it! He was a gentlemen through and through. I also had the honor of praying "the sinners prayer" with Paul, and then we pinky swore, and promised that whoever gets to heaven first, will greet the other one. I have that day to look forward to now. I will miss Paul enormously, and feel privileged, and blessed for having known him, and spent time with him. God bless you Paul!! I know your enjoying heaven right now, and overjoyed to be with your beautiful wife again. My heartfelt sympathy to everyone who loved him, he was truly a one in a million man...Love you Paul!!
