“ The loss of this very special lady is very sad. I was the ring bearer in her wedding and she and Mervin always reminded me of that! See you at the next turn cousin....❤️

“ *Peggy was a classmate of George's and whenever we would accidentally meet they both were so proud of their independence. It was always easy to pick up a conversation wherever you left off last time, just as if it had been the day before. We were pleased when she attended our 65th wedding anniversary party with Janet Beckwith (another classmate) and I appreciated her coming for the visitation when George died, three years ago. She was a great lady. My condolences to her family. Now is the time to dwell on your happy memories, they are priceless. With sympathy and love,

“ Aunt Peggy was the last of her generation in the Taylor family and truly a treasure. She was everyone's favorite Aunt and made us all feel like she loved us the most. Just to say that she will me missed doesn't speak enough to how much she means to so many people.

She was also the last of her generation on the Yeider side, and you are 100% spot on with your description of her.

I "Always" enjoyed any interaction with Peggy She knew all my ancestors ,She always had a smile for me. One favorite topic we talked about was the Very pretty yard & flower gardens that were located at my childhood home south of Bangor which was owned by Fred & Myrth Shrackingass when her and Mervin were married at that location.. Fred & Mryth sold my parents that farm around 1966. Peggy was so pleased that we both knew about those lovely flower gardens which my Mother kept so nice for years... What a cool neighbor Lady. So pleasant & Kind... 😊
