“ To his immediate family including his older brothers Tom and Bob. All of us in their hometown of Remington, Indiana have our own memories of each and every one of you including Pete. I was 3 years younger, but he was an early basketball idol to those of us with aspirations of wearing the Black & Gold. Pete played baseball too, was popular, and plagued through out his career with bad knees. We shared a mutual love for the Chicago White Sox. Life is about creating memories. Pete is a part of mine.RIP!

“ Sweet sweet Pete will be dearly missed here in Denver City at CJR Contractors where he worked. He brightened our days with his good mornings, and always told us goodnight. He will never be forgotten! We love you Sweet Pete! :)

“ Pete will be remembered fondly for his sense of humor and love for all his coworkers. I enjoyed his antics and laugh during his employment with Kalsec. He will be missed.
