“ Please accept my sincere condolences to the Bardocz family for yet another loss. I am the son of Betty & Mac McGill who were friends for several years with George & Edna and I myself sort of grew up with the Bardocz clan and remember Philip, the other kids years ago on Rolfs Place in Detroit. I watched them all grow up and it is very said that as I find the family once again..people leave us. I am very sorry for the loss but if there is any consolation, the Bardocz is a big family and there is comfort. May God bless all of you##imported-
