“ Dear Al & Family:

The passing of your wife Becky was a shock even though we were aware she was suffering and receiving treatment for cancer in Illinois.

The last time my wife and I saw both of you together was when we had just returned from Lexington Ky. and she seemed to be doing pretty well.

We will always remember her sweet demeanor and friendly approachable smile. I am not a religious man but am certain she is with God as I conclude this entry to her visitation page.

Love and prayers,

“ Aunt Becky; Where do I begin??? You were always my favorite aunt. I admired you for the longest time growing up because at the time I was the only niece you had at the time, you spoiled me a little bit as I recall. I was so thankful for the many times I played at your house with Scott and Will in the backyard climbing trees or playing on the golf course, you were an awesome aunt and you will forever hold a special place in my heart. I am forever happy that you are alive again with the Lord a brand new you without pain and suffering I am sure of that. You made me laugh alot and I loved your cooking. Thank-You for coming to our Theater Production of Music Man I am so glad that you got to see Kelly and I again it made me happy that you were there and now you up there and I know you are looking down on us from above I love you Aunt Becky you will always hold a place inside of me..... Love Your Niece Brandy

You are high above may your beauty shine as it it did here and even better than before
