“ Renee, your sweet smile is the thing I remember the most. It is hard to imagine that one person can touch you so quickly and so profoundly...but you did that to everyone you met. I am so blessed to call you my friend and share so many funny moments with you that I treasure. You are missed, you are loved...you are indeed a treasure. I am thankful that someday we will be all reunited in heaven to see each other again. Rest in peace Renee, I love you!

“ Renee, I shall miss you to the end of my days. You were a lovely teenager when I met you and I grew to love you as dearly as one of my own sisters. Your daughters are amazing and that is because you were amazing. I see you in them and it makes me smile. Goodbye my sweet, sweet sister, until we meet again in Heaven. Yes, I'll probably be late as always.

“ Renee, you were a gentle spirit and a precious influence on everything you touched! That first day at Holland Calvary I was scared to death and you were so calm and secure, I figured you had been there forever. I had no idea it was your first day, too. Nevertheless, your sweet spirit permeated the walls of that school and my life. You introduced me to my dearest friends and you lead your life with faith and dignity. I am so proud to be your friend! And I will miss you so. You loved your family and your girls so much! Each time we talked over the last few years you were so proud to tell me about them. What a great mom and a amazing legacy you leave them. I love you and I will keep you in my heart until we celebrate eternity together. Rest in peace, sweet friend. I love you.
