“ Rhonda was funny. Strong woman with a huge heart. She'd tell it like it was and took no bull. I'm so grateful to have known her all my life. Thanks for the talks. We've had many. You were a special lady who I will miss.

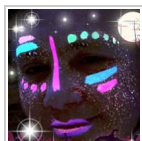

Chris, Stephanie and families...This one will be tough. Allow yourself to grieve. It's out of love. She was pretty special. You will be in my thoughts and prayers. Sending love, support, peace and hugs

“ Christopher, Stephanie, Joyce and Family,

So sad to receive the word that Rhonda has passed, Rhonda was always a quick wit and someone I always enjoyed running into. Many great memories of time spent at the Dutch Mill and even a quick visit once with the Rhonda & family in Bonita Springs. She will be remembered fondly for her Smile, sense of humor and Love for her family. RIP Rhonda.

So many memories of 40 years ago at The Dutch Mill. Silver Clouds, Kibbels and Bits, the psycho rowboat killer, Great America!, Gino's, wet dogs. All good times. Rest easy, my dear friend.
