“ My husband and I both liked Ric immediately, when we first met him about 6 years ago. He became very close friends with my son, Chris, and helped us out with some vehicle repairs and odd jobs. I just learned of Ric's death only a few short hours ago or I would've been present tonight, to express my sorrow for your loss in person. I hope to be at the funeral tomorrow, although my son is unable to attend.##imported-begin##Marie Rodeman & Chris Young##imported-end##

“ Carol, I can't begin to imagine the pain you feel right now. Hang in there, and know that he truly is in a better place. You can call me anytime.

Becky, Tony, and Ralph, I know what you're going through, stick together, it will help you all.

I am so very sorry for your loss.

Love you all.

“ Those we love don't go away,
They walk beside us every day,
Unseen, unheard, but always near by,
Still missed, loved, and still very dear.

With heartfelt Sympathy,

“ I hope all of you know how much you are in my thought and prayers. Even though it has been many years since Ric and I were close, I have always cared for him. At one time Ric was an important part of my life and he will always have a special place in my heart. What I remember the most is his ability to make everyone laugh. After reading the other messages, it looks like I'm not the only one who remembers this. RIP Ric.###imported-begin###Jill Rasmussen LeMaire###imported-end##

“ I've known Ric for the last 6-7 years. He was one of Frank's best friends. When Frank passed Ric was the only one who would help his widow out when she needed things done around the house. He had a good heart and he was a hard worker. He helped Dianna, and he took her kids out on his boat.###imported-begin###Barbara Albrecht###imported-end##
