“ I don't think there was ever a time when I didn't know Denise's father, Bob Florian. I knew him as our insurance man who came by regularly to pick up the Metropolitan Life envelope that my mother kept on the music cabinet right inside the front door. In those days no one needed to knock - Bob would come in say "hi" to us all with a smile and collect the envelope. Later he became our mailman. I knew him before Denise and I became school friends. I have fond memories of him, my thoughts and prayers are with Denise and her family.
