“ I just saw this & am so upset to hear!
I first met Bob & Joyce when they would come into Lone Star for dinner on Friday nights. Bob would just tease & tease & tease me. He would get such a kick out of it & Joyce would just get after him. I truly enjoyed them both so much. He had such a mischievous twinkle in his eyes. I was so saddened when you all lost Joyce.
Over these years, he has never changed. Whenever we would run into each other, it was like there was no time lost - I just loved him.
He always made me feel like I was a true friend & "partner in crime"
lol
I am so saddened by this & will miss him greatly.
I am so very sorry for your loss. Bob was one of a kind & I will remember him always.

“ Cousin Bob, what a great guy. He never had a mean word to say, never was too busy for a visit, always ready for a game of golf and a glass of wine. We loved him and sincerely enjoyed being with him. We got a kick out of teasing him and found he was always ready to laugh with us. He was a kind and gentle man. We will dearly miss our time with him.

“ Uncle Bob always gave you that mischievous wink of the eye and smile, like he knew something you didn't. A trait that all the boys had was they loved to joke around, especially Uncle Bob!

Dan and family, I am so sorry for your loss. I just saw it today. Not living in Michigan anymore, I do not hear much from home. Just happened to check Miller funeral home and was so surprised to hear about your wonderful dad. I always liked when he visited you at work. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. We used to have a to of good times at work. I miss those days.
