“ As a kid even though Bobby was much older she always found time for us younger kids. After grandma Gilbert passed we lost contact for many years. Aunt Carol got us back in contact. I sure wish we wouldn't have lost that time. She will be missed.

Prayers go out to her family, Mike and I knew her threw our daughter, and I worked with her at Duo-Tang. She was a happy go lucky lady with a smile on her face all the time. She was also a hard worker. I'm sure she will be greatly missed.
